LEAD OFF DINNER

Featuring Brian Jordan

From Baltimore Maryland, Brian Jordan was a Former Major League Baseball outfielder and National Football League safety. In the NFL, he played for the Atlanta Falcons, while he played primarily in MLB for the St. Louis Cardinals and Atlanta Braves. He is regarded as one of the best multi-sport professional athletes of all time as he was voted alternate to the National Football Conference Pro Bowl team during the 1991 season and an all-star with the Braves in 1999. Jordan serves as a TV pre-game analyst and Co-Host at Bally Sports for the Atlanta Braves on Braves Live, the official pregame show on FSN South and SportSouth. He is active in the Atlanta community with the Brian Jordan Foundation and authored the semi-autobiographical children's book I Told You I Can Play!
